

This feminist Situation

PLAY

1. Join the group moving around the perimeter of the square.
2. One player reaches into the bowl, draws a question, reads it out loud.
3. Constantly moving, sometimes in position, other times rotating like the hands of a clock – players discuss this question, examining it from different perspectives.
4. Only one person speaks at a time.
5. When the question is exhausted, the players rotate and another question is pulled out of the bowl. The player reads it, starting the cycle again.
6. When a new person enters the room, all players welcome her or him in unison, « Bienvenue à cette situation féministe »
7. At this point, another player draws a question and the topic changes.
8. Lost? Follow the cues of the player in the red shirt!
