

TRADE SCHOOL Open Call for Participants

Bring your skills, ideas, books, talents, kids, things, crafts, art, clothes, food, etc., to Skol on Saturday June 22nd!

Hosted by the Centre for Feminist Pedagogy (CFP), TRADE SCHOOL is a day-long moneyless marketplace that is free and open to all!

TRADE SCHOOL welcomes any form of potlatch...clothing swaps, community kitchens, knitting circles, babysitting, reading groups, music lessons, lending libraries and book swaps, yoga lessons, drawing lessons, language lessons, collective art projects, bike repairs, tutoring, editing, translation, making and dying fabrics, paper making, origami, pop-up exhibitions, grant writing, acting, mime, and almost anything else...

When: Saturday, June 22, 2013 from noon to 5pm

Where: Skol, 372, rue Sainte-Catherine Ouest, espace 314, Montréal, QC

To Participate: If you would like to participate and need a table, space, or other support to showcase your goods or talent, please RSVP contact@feministpedagogy.org by Thursday, June 20th.

*Casual participants, browsers, and passersby are welcome too, no RSVP necessary. Stop by for an hour or stay for the day!

Special Event at 2pm: HOW TO DYE IN STYLE, feature workshop by René Vandenbrink, textile artist and funeral director. Give your old bras, t-shirts, socks, and tights a new, colourful life!
